

EXPANDING HORIZONS: HISTORY, THE CITY AND THE WEB

University of South Australia

Bradley Forum, Level 5, Hawke Building, North Terrace, Adelaide

17-18 MAY 2010*DRAFT PROGRAM (subject to change)*Monday 17 May

TIME	SPEAKER	AFFILIATION	TOPIC (title subject to change)
8.30-9.15	Arrival and registration
9.15	Welcome Mr Lewis O'Brien  Prof Peter Høj  Ms Margaret Anderson	Kaurna Elder  Vice Chancellor, University of South Australia  CEO, History SA
PLANNING HISTORY AND THE CITY
9.30-10.30	Helen Meller	University of Nottingham, UK	Planning in an historical framework: perspectives on experiences of urban living
10.30-11.10	Robert Freestone	University of New South Wales	Australian Planning History: themes, traditions, transformations
11.10-11.30	MORNING TEA
URBAN STUDIES AND THE CITY
11.30-12.30	Erik Olssen	University of Otago, NZ	What the Caversham project teaches us about urban history and what urban history might learn
12.30-1.30	LUNCH

TIME	SPEAKER	AFFILIATION	TOPIC (title subject to change)
1.30-3.00	Alan Mayne	University of South Australia	Australian urban social history and micro-history studies overview
	Seamus O'Hanlon	Monash University	Journeys through deindustrialising landscapes: Inner Melbourne and Main North Road, Adelaide, c1970 to now
	Mandy Paul	History SA	Indigenous histories and the city
3.00-3.30	AFTERNOON TEA
3.30-4.30	Tim Murray	LaTrobe University	Expanding horizons in the archaeology of the modern city
	Margaret Anderson	History SA	Researching Australian material lives
4.30-4.45pm	Round up and close

EXPANDING HORIZONS: HISTORY, THE CITY AND THE WEB

University of South Australia

Bradley Forum, Level 5, Hawke Building, North Terrace, Adelaide

17-18 MAY 2010*DRAFT PROGRAM (subject to change)*Tuesday 18 May

TIME	SPEAKER	AFFILIATION	TOPIC (title subject to change)
8.45-9.15	Arrival and registration
CITY HISTORY PROJECTS IN PRINT AND ONLINE
9.15-10.00	Erik Olssen	University of Otago	Creating and selling a multi-disciplinary research project in urban social history
10.00-10.30	Discussion of Caversham project
10.30-11.00	Morning tea
Australian city dictionary projects and encyclopedia projects
11.00-12.30	Adelaide: Wilf Prest	University of Adelaide	Wakefield Companion to South Australian History
	Melbourne: Andy May	University of Melbourne	Encyclopedia of Melbourne
	Sydney: Emma Grahame	Dictionary of Sydney (Editor)	Modelling urban history online: the Dictionary of Sydney
12.30-1.15	LUNCH

TIME	SPEAKER	AFFILIATION	TOPIC (title subject to change)
The Web and its contribution to historical research
1.15-3.15	Gavan McCarthy	Director: e-scholarship, University of Melbourne	Architectural spaces, public knowledge spaces and archival collections: the intersection of the built, the informational and the historical
	James Tizard	Interim Director e-Research SA	e-research. What is it and what opportunities and directions does it present for historical research?
	Darren Peacock	Director: Sweet Technology	History and the web: Mallala Now and Then wiki project
	Stephen Roberston	University of Sydney	Mapping Everyday Life: Digital Harlem, 1915-1930
3.15-3.30	Afternoon break
Taking stock of Adelaide
3.30-5.00	Christine Garnaut	University of South Australia	Urban histories of Adelaide: brief reflections
	Alan Hutchings	University of South Australia	Planning history in SA with particular reference to With Conscious Purpose: a history of town planning in SA
	Andrew Wallace	University of South Australia	History, Hindley Street and the Adelaide West End
	Chris Daniels	University of South Australia	Will the environment contain population growth? Lessons from Adelaide
5-5.15	Summary and close		