

The Relationship between Academic Accounting Research and Professional Practice

A collaborative forum to investigate the contemporary challenges around accounting education, academe and the profession in Australia.

Agenda

8.30am	Registration
8.55am	Welcome Prof. James Guthrie and Prof. Roger Burritt – Co-Chairs
9.00am	Opening remarks Prof. Caroline McMillen, Deputy Vice Chancellor and Vice President: Research & Innovation, University of SA
9.10am	S1 Academic research and innovation: a European perspective Prof. Göran Roos - Adelaide's 20th Thinker in Residence
9.50am	S2 Accounting research, policy and practice: worlds together or worlds apart? Emeritus Prof. Richard Laughlin – King's College London, University of London
10.30am	Morning tea
10.50am	S3 Questioning, informing and extending organisational practices: the potential of management accounting Prof. Suresh Cuganesan – Swinburne University of Technology Dr Len Gainsford – Director Audit & Assurance, Dept. of Transport - Victoria
11.30am	S4 Leveraging academic research to improve financial reporting Prof. Tyrone M Carlin – University of Sydney Kevin Stevenson - Chairman & CEO, AASB
12.10pm	Lunch
1.10pm	S5 Sustainability research and practice Prof. Roger Burritt – Centre for Accounting, Governance and Sustainability, University of South Australia Geraldine Magarey – Head of Sustainability, The Institute of Chartered Accountants
1.50pm	S6 Audit – theory and practice Prof. Philomena Leung - Macquarie University Prof. Barry Cooper - Deakin University Lee White – Executive General Manager – Members, The Institute of Chartered Accountants
2.30pm	Afternoon tea
2.50pm	S7 Connecting tax research and practice: past, present and future Prof. Margaret McKerchar - Australian School of Taxation and Business Law (Atax), University of NSW Yasser El-Ansary, Tax Counsel, The Institute of Chartered Accountants
3.30pm	S8 Academic research and practice Prof. Keryn Chalmers, President AFAANZ Assoc. Prof. Sue Wright, President Elect, AFAANZ
4.10pm	Round table and closing remarks
5.00pm	Networking drinks