
SCHOOL OF COMMERCE (HONOURS) SCHOLARSHIPS APPLICATION PACK

ABOUT SCHOLARSHIPS¹

The School of Commerce (Honours) Scholarships are open to candidates who are enrolled in (or are considering admission into) the Bachelor of Business (Honours)/Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) (DHCM) Program in Study Period 2, 2010 academic year with a research focus in any discipline² offered by the School of Commerce. To be eligible for these scholarships, students must study their honours year internally in Australia (onshore).

The scholarships will be awarded to candidates considered most likely to succeed at producing research in the area of the School of Commerce.

The awarding of a scholarship is conditional upon meeting the following criteria:

- the scholarship will be available for candidates who are enrolled in (or are considering admission into) the Bachelor of Business (Honours)/Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) (DHCM) Program
- the candidate must provide a covering letter
- the candidate must provide an essay of up to 1000 words outlining the area of their proposed research topic

SCHOLARSHIP VALUE

Up to six Scholarships will be awarded each year, and will provide payment of $10,000 (each) for a single year. The scholarships will be paid after the census date of Study Period 2, each academic year.

SELECTION PANEL

Shortlisted candidates will be interviewed by a panel comprising:

- the Head of School (Commerce)³ and
- two relevant academic staff members of the School of Commerce.

SELECTION INTERVIEW

At the interview candidates will be invited to give a short presentation and may be asked to answer questions by the panel. The selection panel will consider the following:

- academic merit
- merit of the proposed research topic and
- communication skills

SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS

- It is a condition of the scholarship that recipients will be supervised by a relevant academic member of the School of Commerce.
- Students who suspend their studies, may be asked to repay the scholarship

¹ Scholarships are subject to change and are awarded based on conditions current at the time of award

² Commerce (Accounting), Applied Finance, International Business/Market Regulation, Economics, Property and Business Administration

³ The Head of School reserves the right to amend the interview panel if required.
