

Towards International Justice with the Focus on Women and War

International Criminal Court 10th Anniversary Event and Women & War Exhibition Launch

July 2008 is the 10th Anniversary of the international community agreeing a statute for an International Criminal Court (ICC). To celebrate, Red Cross has invited Dr Helen Durham – who attended negotiations leading to the Rome Statute – to present The ICC – Towards International Justice and Ending Impunity.

Dr Durham will also address the ICC’s provisions for the prosecution of sexual crimes against women – a significant development in the ICC and thematically linked with the Women and War photographic exhibition produced by the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC).

Immediately following the ICC presentation, Associate Professor Tina Dolgopol will launch the ICRC’s Women and War exhibition. These colour and black & white photos from all over the world explore the ways in which armed conflict and its aftermath impact deeply upon women, their families and communities.

Time & date: 5.15 for a 5.30pm start, Wednesday 23 July
Venue: ICC Event and Exhibition launch – Bradley Forum – Level 5
Exhibition – Kerry Packer Civic Gallery – Level 3
The Hawke Building, UniSA City West Campus
50-60 North Terrace, Adelaide
