

ReOrienting the World: Decolonial Horizons

Program

Day 1: Tuesday 22 March 2011

8:45am Registration
Morning Tea is served

9:00am Welcome: S.Sayyid, Director, International Centre for Muslim and Non-Muslim Understanding

Session 1

9:15am Ramon Grosfoguel, Dept of Ethnic Studies, University of California, Berkeley
The Challenge of Delinking from Eurocentric Fundamentalism and Relinking to Decolonial Transmodern Knowledges.

9:45am David Tyrer, Sociology, Liverpool John Moores University
Racial Rule in 'post-political' Times: Critical Muslim Studies and the Problem of Political Agency

10.15am Kym Thorne and Alexander Kouzmin, University of South Australia
Dead History: Dead nation: Dead Humanity

Followed by 30 Minutes Discussion

11:15am to 11:45am TEA BREAK

Symposium venue: Bradley Forum, Hawke Building

Session 2

11:45am Lisa Slater, Hawke Research Institute, University of South Australia
Waiting at the Border

12:15pm Pushkar Raj, Endeavour Research Fellow, University of South Australia
Mabo High Court Judgement: Struggling to Give New Meaning to Existing Reality – Judicial Connivance in Colonial Project in Land Relations in Australia

12:45pm Soenke Biermann, PhD Candidate, Southern Cross University
Off-centre and unsettling: Decolonising Academic Knowledge Production.

Followed by 30 Minutes Discussion

1:45pm to 3:00pm LUNCH

TBA

Session 3

3:00pm Louise Ryan, PhD Candidate, Centre for Cultural Research, University of Western Sydney
Beyond the Spectacular: Islamic Identity on Display

3:30pm Siamak Fallah, PhD Candidate, Visual Arts, University of South Australia
Reorienting Orient: The Challenge of home grown democracy and the Islamic Republic of Iran

4:00pm Amr G.E. Sabet, Department of Political Science, Dalarna University, Sweden and Helsinki University, Finland.
Discourse, Domination and the Dynamics of Hegemony

Followed by 30 Minutes Discussion

5.00pm Day 1 -Closing Remarks

Close Day 1 – approx 5.10pm

ReOrienting the World: Decolonial Horizons

Day 2: Wednesday 23 March 2011

Morning Tea is provided

Session 1

9:15am Katrina Jaworski, Hawke Research Institute, UniSA
The Gendering of the Political Will of Palestinian Female Suicide Bombers in the Australian Press

9:45am Ron Hoenic, PhD Candidate, University of South Australia
Monsters on the Borderland: An Analysis of Australian Print Media Depictions of Woomera & Its Denizens

10.15am Tejaswini Patil, School of History and Politics, The University of Adelaide
The Politics of Muslim Othering: An Examination of Hindu Nationalism & Australian Nationalism During the Cronulla Riots of 2005 and the Gujarat Riots of 2002

Followed by 30 Minutes Discussion

11:15am to 11:45am TEA BREAK

Symposium venue: Bradley Forum, Hawke Building

Session 2

11:45am Kwame Nimako, Graduate School of Social Sciences, Universiteit van Amsterdam .
Neo-colonialism in the World System: The Case of Africa

12:15pm Tanya Lyons, School of International Studies, Flinders University
'Globo-nialism': Globalisation and Colonialism in Africa

12:45pm Shamsul Khan, School of International Studies, University of South Australia
Notion of 'Balanced Development' from an Islamic Perspective

Followed by 30 Minutes Discussion

1:45pm to 3:00pm LUNCH

TBA

Session 3

3:00pm Benito Cao, School of History and Politics, The University of Adelaide
Discovery as Ideology: The Discovery of Asia in Portuguese Humanism

3:30pm Gilbert Caluya, International Centre for Muslim and non-Muslim Understanding, University of SA
Intimate Citizenship in Postcolonial Societies

4:00pm Thomas Reifer, Sociology, University of San Diego
Mapping Comparative Colonialities, Genocides and 'Holocausts': Towards a New Research Agenda

Followed by 30 Minutes Discussion

Session 4

5.00pm Where to From Here? & Closing Remarks

Close Day 2 – 5.30pm