DEFINITIONS:

Area + Catalogue Number

A 4-letter area code plus a 4-digit catalogue number make up the course code, eg BIOL 1033. You can search for courses by using this code.

Class Number

Every class at UniSA has a unique number (eg 24813). You use this number to enrol. Both the enrolment class and related classes have class numbers.

Enrolment Class

This can be a lecture (LEC), tutorial (TUT), workshop (WSH) or practical (PRA), to name a few examples. It is the first class you must enter when you are enrolling.

Related Classes (Non-Enrol Classes)

These are other required components of the course, and are in addition to the enrolment class. They can be one of the following class types - lecture, tutorial, workshop or practical, to name a few. In most cases you will have a choice (eg 1 tutorial to be chosen from 7).

However, in some courses, once you select the enrolment class you are automatically enrolled (auto-enrol) in a related class (eg a particular tutorial or practical at a particular time). The class number will be listed in the Auto-enrol column.

NOTES:

1. The table above shows the full list of courses to be taken by a student undertaking a full-time load solely in this year of the program.
2. Students enrol in all courses for both study periods (Study Period 2 & 5) at the beginning of the year.
3. This course is a surrogate for one of the four languages courses which are chosen by students from one of the languages taught by academic staff of the University of South Australia (Arabic, French, Italian or Japanese) or from those available by cross-institutional cooperation (including Mandarin Chinese, German, Modern Greek, Indonesian or Spanish) under arrangements approved by the Languages Coordinator. Overseas students from non-English speaking backgrounds may take 18 units of coursework in English as an Additional Language in place of 18 units in a language other than English. Students may vary to the extent of completing 9 units of foreign language studies (2 courses) and 9 units of International Studies electives (2 courses).
