

HDR Human Research Ethics Workshop

The University of South Australia, the University of Adelaide and Flinders University invite all higher degree by research (HDR) students from these three institutions to a one day workshop on research ethics and integrity.

Current HDR students who are undertaking research projects which require human research ethics approval are strongly encouraged to attend this workshop. Non-HDR students whose current program of study requires an application for ethics approval may also be eligible, pending confirmation from their supervisor.

Sessions will include:

- An introduction to research integrity and the responsible conduct of research
- An overview of the ethical issues that may arise in research involving human participants (including topic-specific breakout sessions)
- Tools to analyse and address these issues
- How to apply for approval from a Human Research Ethics Committee

WHEN: Thursday 14 June 2018, 9:00am – 5.00pm (Registration 8.30am – 9.00am)
(Note: attendance is required all day)

WHERE: UniSA City East Campus, Basil Hetzel Building, Frome Road, H2-02 (campus map)

RSVP: Registration required by Monday 04 June 2018 via the online form
