

Sansom Institute Research Symposium

Drug Use During Pregnancy:

Drugs, Nutrition and Fetal Physiology

15 July 2011

Room H2-02, Basil Hetzel Building, University of South Australia, Adelaide

Linking research to better health.

- 9.00am Welcome and Introduction
Prof Jason White
- 9.05am Mental Health during Pregnancy
Dr Belinda Edwards
- 9.35am Drug use during pregnancy - regulations, classification and patterns of use
Neil Hotham, Women's and Children's Hospital
- 10.05am Maternal nutrition and regulation of fetal growth
Dr Janna Morrison, UniSA
- 10.30am Morning Tea / Postgraduate Posters
- Drugs of abuse during pregnancy*
- 11.00am Screening for use of alcohol, tobacco and illicit drugs in pregnancy
Dr Libby Hotham, UniSA
- 11.30am Buprenorphine and methadone during pregnancy
Dr Andrea Gordon, UniSA
- 12.00pm Alcohol during pregnancy: fetal outcomes
Dr Kelly Kenna, Monash University
- 12.30pm Lunch / Postgraduate Posters
- Depression and use of antidepressants during pregnancy*
- 1.30pm Effects of untreated perinatal depression & the NPDI
Dr Pauline Hall, Mental Health Unit, SA Health
- 2.00pm Fetal growth and responses to maternal antidepressants
Prof Dan Rurak, University of British Columbia
- 3.00pm Challenges in using routinely collected healthcare and administrative data to investigate long-term effects of medication use during pregnancy
Mr Luke Grzeskowiak, UniSA
- 3.30pm The drug exposed baby in the NICU
Dr Michael Stark, WCH
- 4.00pm Network Session / Afternoon Tea / Postgraduate Posters